THE SPEAKERS:

Doug Kirk is a second generation plumber with more than 50 years in the trade. After 6 years working as a service and repair plumber, he started his own business in 1975 adding new construction plumbing. In 1980 he began teaching the San Diego Community College ROP Plumber Training Classes, writing the training material for Metro and East County classes. He was credentialed in 1982 (California Community Colleges Limited Lifetime Service Credential).

He attended his first IAPMO Technical Committee meeting in 1984 and joined the IAPMO staff in February 2011. His current title is Technical Services Supervisor where he works with the UPC and UMC Answers and Analysis and Publications Committees.
