

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF PLUMBING ENGINEERS LOS ANGELES CHAPTER

March 2, 2016 Meeting

“Legionella Legionella Everywhere”

By

Mr. Timothy Schroeder

Staff Sales Engineer, Rada North America

THE SPEAKER:

- Tim Schroeder has been working in the plumbing industry for over 20 years. He has held positions responsible for the design, development, and manufacturing of end use plumbing devices.
- He has focused on commercial plumbing throughout his carrier resulting in some truly innovative approaches to new plumbing challenges.
- Through his passion for public health and safety he has been able to concentrate his efforts in the medical market for the last 2 years

THE TOPIC:

- The presentation will focus on the following:
Recent outbreaks at diverse institutions – Not just a healthcare issue
- Problems with current Faucet and Shower Technologies and implementation
- New innovations to consider
 - Smart Design
 - Smart Engineering
 - Smart Solutions

The March 2nd , 2016 Meeting will be held at:

Monterey Hill Restaurant
3700 Ramona Blvd.,
Monterey Park, CA 91754

RSVP REQUIRED. Send to:
Thura.zin@arup.com by March 1st
2016, 12:00 P.M.

Meeting Schedule:
5:00 pm – 6:30 pm Social
6:30 pm – 7:00 pm Registration
7:00 pm - 9:00 pm Chapter Meeting

Cost:
$15 – Currently Registered Student @ UCLA
Extension Plumbing Class, College or University. Proof of enrollment required.

$30 – All others.

Table Top:

Maile Akina from LiquiTech Environmental Solutions, leading provider and manufacture for domestic water treatment.

For more information, visit our website @ www.aspela.com